

Simone McConnie

Simone McConnie is a UK trained Podiatrist of 32 years practicing in Barbados and the Region.

Regional co Chair of NAC for Dfoot International; Chair Board of Caribbean wounds Network; Chair Paramedical Council (Barbados regulatory board for allied health).
Trustee of the Maria Holder Diabetes Center.

Member of APMA, ALPS and Royal College of Podiatrist UK, Founder and Managing Podiatrist Comfeet Footcare clinic, Founding member of the Diabetes Foundation and Maria Holder diabetes Center, Fellow of the Faculty of Podiatric Medicine of the Royal College Of physicians and Surgeons, and American Board Podiatric Medicine Certified under their international arm

Recipient of Award from the Diabetes Foot center group, Oscar Jordan Award and most recently a commendation award from the Board of DFoot international for her work in the region and support of the Dfoot programs.

She is a speaker internationally, regionally and locally promoting the Podiatry profession and the Diabetic foot.

An advocate for Limb Salvage, wound care and Podiatric Medicine and passionate about ending avoidable lower limb amputations of the diabetic foot.

Always strives for 10 toes and 2 feet and believes in the quote from Henry Ford: that we go alone we go fast we go together we go farther. Teams and connectivity is about solutions and improving lives around us.