

Ilaria Teobaldi

Ilaria Teobaldi is an Italian-trained podiatrist with 26 years of clinical experience, practicing in Italy. She worked for 21 years in Diabetic Foot Clinics and now runs a private practice in Verona, Italy. She is Chair of the Verona Podiatrists Register (CdAT Podologi – Verona) and Councilor of the National Podiatrists Register in Italy (CdaN – Podologi).

She has authored and co-authored several scientific papers. She has been a speaker at national and international meetings and at Italian universities, promoting podiatry, diabetic foot care, and wound healing.

Her goal for podiatry is non-competitive, unified growth that leaves no one behind, in order to promote the health of every citizen and every community.
