

Frank Louis Lepore, DPM, MBA

Dr. Frank Louis Lepore, DPM, MBA, is the former State of Florida Governor-appointed Health Department Director for Charlotte County. He is also the former President of the American Board of Multiple Specialties in Podiatry. He previously served on the faculty of the Mount Sinai Icahn School of Medicine in the Department of Orthopedics and on the faculty of SUNY Downstate in the Department of Orthopedics. He is currently a clinical surgical instructor for the New York College of Podiatric Medicine and a Fellow Faculty of Podiatric Medicine at the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow in Scotland.

He has authored numerous articles in respected international journals and has conducted several published studies. He has lectured worldwide on topics in Podiatric Medicine, Podiatric Surgery, Podiatric Trauma, Podiatric Oncology, wound care, medical practice management, healthcare administration, and public health governance and initiatives. He has served as Department of Surgery Chair at several hospitals where he practiced and has also held roles as Vice Chief of Staff and Chief of Staff at multiple institutions. He is the current Vice Chief of Staff at AdventHealth Port Charlotte in Florida, where he resides and maintains a private practice.

